ALF BURGERS

Served with hot chips VG | Upgrade to onion rings 3 V

THE DUKE ORIGINAL 17

Classic 'royale with cheese' style burger, makes a quarter pounder blush with embarrassment at how much better a burger can be with the same ingredients. Beef patty, burger melt cheese, pickles, onions, ketchup & mustard on brioche

Honouring our namesake Alf, Prince Alfred the Duke of Edinburgh, the layabout second son of Queen Victoria.

THE DUKE 2.1 19

The Duke OG plus lettuce, tomato & mayo

Because even Prince Alfred, lover of boozing & bordellos, needed some salad in his life sometimes.

THE FLAMIN' GALAH 21

Double layered fried chicken, stacked with burger melt cheese & topped with creamy chilli slaw on brioche

"Strewth! That's a flamin' ripper chicken burger!" - Alf Stewart

THE SIR IAN MCKELLEN 'GANDALF' TOFU BURGER 19 V VGO

Panko crumbed tofu, lettuce, tomato, burger melt cheese, pickles, onions, ketchup & mustard on brioche

Sir Ian McKellen is one of the world's most famous vegos, & let's face it, Gandalf was such an enlightened being he wouldn't have eaten other creatures surely?

THE JOHN WAYNE 28

Double beef patty, double bacon, double burger melt cheese, jalapeños, pickles, BBQ sauce & onion rings on brioche

Not so much an Alf burger, rather an extension of the Duke theme. A burger fit for a bloke who played a cowboy his whole life & died of stomach cancer.

THE BLACK PRINCE 26

Brisket, slow-cooked in spices & cola with burger melt cheese, jalapeños & chilli slaw on a Turkish roll

Namesake burger of the Black Prince of Lygon Street. As badass as Alphonse Gangitano himself & as sexy as Vince Collosimo who played him in Underbelly.

ADD ON

+ beef patty, fried chicken 5
+ bacon, egg 4
+ cheese, tomato, jalapeños 2
+ lettuce 1

All our burgers can be made vegetarian by switching to a meat-free patty +2
